

Masjid Ar Rahman Presents:

A Six-Week Summer School Program!

The current school semester at Masjid Al Rahman ends at the end of May and the regular school ends a bit afterward.

Worried that your child will spend the summer in front of the TV?

Worry no longer. Enroll you children in this 6-week; 3 days per week program offered by Masjid Ar Rahman where they will begin creating a foundation of Islam and on the fast track to becoming better and more knowledgeable Muslims!

Syllabus will include key surahs from the Qur'an, dua's, how to perform salat, and the Islamic ideal of respect, all taught by variety of teachers.

The classes will be held two evenings per week and on Saturday morning, with each session being 2-2.5 hours long. The students will also participate in field trips on at least two Sundays.

Make an effort to enroll your children into this program. It will be a great way to increase their knowledge in many different facets of Islam and Quran. We are only accepting 60 applications, so apply today!

Please note, seats are limited and students will be admitted as first come first serve. To confirm a seat for your child, please attach the class tuition and fees with your registration.

E-mail summerprogram@mccschool.org for more information and details about this exciting opportunity.

Sign up sheets are available now.
